

Professor Melanie Davies and June James Nurse Consultant have been nominated as speakers for the Named Lectures at the Diabetes UK Annual Professional Conference this year.

The Named Lectures form an important and integral part of the Diabetes UK Annual Professional Conference.

The following speakers have been nominated to give the 2010 named lectures.

- Arnold Bloom Lecture: Melanie Davies, Leicester
- Banting Memorial Lecture: David Matthews, Oxford
- Dorothy Hodgkin Lecture: Mark McCarthy, Oxford
- Janet Kinson Lecture: June James, Leicester
- Mary MacKinnon Lecture: Fiona Kirkland, Hilton Derbyshire
- RD Lawrence Lecture: Mark Strachan, Edinburgh

Arnold Bloom Lecture Award

In keeping with the ideals of Arnold Bloom, this lecture is awarded to a person who is a healthcare professional working in diabetes care and has contributed significantly to improving the quality of clinical care of people with diabetes.

Professor Melanie Davies -
Professor of Diabetes Medicine

Janet Kinson Lecture Award

In keeping with the ideals of Janet Kinson, this award highlights education as an integral part of diabetes care, and is open to all health professionals, whose work in diabetes demonstrates a commitment to the delivery of education as a fundamental aspect of clinical care.

June James- Nurse Consultant